

Introduction	1
Roxana Waterson and Kwok Kian-Woon

Part I: Southeast Asia within the Field of Memory Studies

Chapter 1	The Work of Memory and the Unfinished Past: Deepening and Widening the Study of Memory in Southeast Asia	17
	Roxana Waterson and Kwok Kian-Woon

Part II: Nationalisms and the Construction of Destinies

Chapter 2	Remembering Kings: Archives, Resistance and Memory in Colonial and Post-colonial Burma	53
	Maitrii Aung-Thwin
Chapter 3	Shifting Visions of the Past: Ethnic Minorities and the 'Struggle for National Independence' in Laos	83
	Vatthana Pholsena
Chapter 4	Truth and Memory: Narrating Viet Nam	106
	Sharon Seah Li-Lian
Chapter 5	Textual Construction of a Nation: The Use of Merger and Separation	125
	Dayang Istiaisyah bte Hussin
Chapter 6	Remembering, Misremembering and Forgetting: The Struggle over Serangan Oemoem 1 Maret 1949 in Yogyakarta, Indonesia	156
	Heddy Shri Ahimsa Putra

Part III: Traumatic Memories: Interpenetrations of Collective and Personal Experience

Chapter 7	War and Violence, History and Memory: The Philippine Experience of the Second World War Ricardo T. José	185
Chapter 8	The Past in the Present: Memories of the 1964 'Racial Riots' in Singapore Adeline Low Hwee Cheng	201
Chapter 9	Memories at the Margins: Chinese-Educated Intellectuals in Singapore Kwok Kian-Woon and Kelvin Chia	230
Chapter 10	Living with the Spectre of the Past: Traumatic Experiences among Wives of Former Political Prisoners of the '1965 Event' in Indonesia Budiawan	270